The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U S Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any oath or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petitioner is, or was a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a bankrupt and issues a warrant to the Messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made, from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10 As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value $300) five hundred dollars, also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process, by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864 A safe Counsellor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no homes Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11 It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors

13 Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes, as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

The above is a fair specimen of the kind of ballot to be cast at the approaching election by the Conservatives.

THE HOLDEN AND THE GOODLOE TICKETS.

We warn voters to look well to their tickets. Let the Conservatives be sure to reject all but the sound Conservative tickets. The Holden ticket is so offensive to sound Union men, that they cannot touch it with a forty foot pole. A Republican ticket has, therefore, been issued, with a number of names unexceptionable as to their moral character, but with some which are very objectionable, to catch the "Friends" and other Union men, who will not vote for Holden.

But, so far as we understand it, both tickets, the Holden and the Goodloe tickets, are for the Constitution. There is death in that pot! We would vote for Goodloe, and even for Holden, before we would vote for the infamous Constitution. But we will take neither; and therefore let us vote the Conservative ticket out and out, and nothing else. Voters, beware!

VIOLATION OF GEN. CANBY'S ORDERS.

Holden advises his negro allies to flock to the polls in crowds. This is evidently for the purpose of carrying out the programme of the last election, which had the effect of driving thousands of WHITE MEN from the voting places. It is intended for intimidation. Gen. Canby, in Gen. Order 61, orders voters NOT to linger about the polling places.

Again: The ordinance of the "Convention," embodied in Gen. Canby's order, affixes a penalty of fine or imprisonment to any person who shall prevent any qualified elector from the free exercise of the elective franchise, by THREATS against his person or property. This is what Holden is doing every day. He is constantly "THREATENING" our people, that if they vote down the odious Constitution, confiscation and other horrors will be visited upon them!! Is not this INTIMIDATION?

If we wished the man personal injury, we might say that he ought to be arrested on both these counts.

THE RADICAL press are greatly exercised over the isolated instance of the murder, in Columbus, Georgia, of a profligate Radical vagabond, named Ashburn, who kept a negro harem. But nothing is said of the every day aggravated cases of crime among freedmen and low-down white Radicals. Murders by them are on the increase. In Alabama, four "rebels" were recently shot, and in numerous localities throughout the South, despite the presence of the military, we hear, every day, of robberies, arsons and other outrages committed by freedmen. In the Eastern part of this State, the amount of crime has been fearful to think of. It will be greater still, if the white men of the West (as we are sure they will not) fail to come to the rescue of their brethren of the East from negro DOMINATION!

LOOK OUT for fraudulent tickets from the "boxed up" concerns!

THE TAX TO PAY THE EXPENSES OF THE CONVENTION.

We learn that the Standard is making an ado, because some of the County Tax Assessors are said to be going about and requiring the people to list, for taxation, their little property, such as chickens, cattle, pigs, pots, dishes, &c. The Standard denies that there is any authority for this thing. The Standard knows that it speaks falsely when it utters such a statement. It is of a peice with all its statements. It never speaks the truth, when a falsehood will better suit its purpose.

We ask the people to read the following exact copy of the ordinance, passed by the late Mongrel Convention, levying a tax to pay its expenses:

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled.—That for the purpose of raising monies to pay the expenses of this Convention, according to the acts of Congress in such case made and provided, a tax of one twentieth of one per cent. shall be levied on the land in North Carolina, according to its valuation in the year 1860, subject to such changes therein as have been since made by law, and on the personal property within said State according to the valuation thereof to be made in the year 1868. This tax shall be collected, paid and accounted for, at the Treasury of the State, at the times when, and in the same manner as, other State taxes are required by law to be.

The collecting officers shall be subject to the same penalties for failure to collect, pay and account for the taxes hereby levied as they now are for such failure in respect to other taxes.

The said collecting officers shall receive the like compensation for collecting the tax hereby levied, as for the collection of other taxes.

This ordinance shall be in force from and its passage.

CORRECT COPY:
(Signed,) T. A. BYRNES, Secretary.

Now, what is the plain construction of the above ordinance? What can any tax assessor in the State understand by the above ordinance, but that it provides for assessing "a tax of one-twentieth of one per cent. on the land in North Carolina, according to its valuation in the year 1860, and ON THE PERSONAL PROPERTY within said State, according to the valuation thereof to be made in the year 1868?"—What is the personal property within said State, if it does not mean every particle of property, except real estate, owned by the people, black and white, in the State?

If Gen. Canby does not amend the ordinance and limit its meaning to a specified species of property, will not every assessor be COMPELLED, by the language of the ordinance, to assess the value of all the personal property owned by every person in the State? Are not the furniture, the provisions, the ducks, chickens, pigs, corn, horses, &c., indeed EVERY THING, except real estate, owned by the white and black people of the State, the men, women and children, the widows and orphans of the State, PERSONAL PROPERTY? Is it not perfectly plain that no tax assessor in the State has the right, under this ordinance, to exempt one particle of land or personal property in the State from taxation? And is it not plain that, unless Gen. Canby issues his order, modifying and explaining the ordinance, every tax assessor will be compelled to be governed by the literal and obvious meaning of the ordinance? Most certainly.

HAVE ARMY OFFICERS THE RIGHT TO REGISTER?—We learn that one or more army officers on duty here, (and some of the rank and file were disposed to do the same,) attempted to register, in this city, at the late registration. We do not state this as a fact, but we hear it mentioned as such. We further hear that one of the Registrars was willing to register them, but that one of the white and one of the colored Registrars, (be it said to his credit,) refused consent, believing that it was a violation of the army regulations, and that they had no right to do so.

THE ONLY molestation that Sergeant Bates met with, on his pedestrian journey from Vicksburg to Washington, was from the Radicals in Congress, on his arrival at the latter place. The old flag, carried flying and every where respected throughout the South, by one of its faithful soldiers, had only to be carried to the Halls of Congress to meet with insult and be refused a welcome! Radicalism is the bitterest foe of Union, and of the flag, which symbolizes (or ought to symbolize) it!

IMPEACHMENT.—J. B. S., the intelligent correspondent of the New York World, "adheres to the belief, expressed more than a week ago, that the doubtful members of the Court of Impeachment are numerous enough to prevent conviction!"

The New York Herald says: "On every side the case of the prosecution is falling to the ground; for besides testifying that the purpose of the President was to test the constitutionality of the law, General Sherman also declared that nothing more was said about the use of force than that Mr. Stanton was a coward and would not resist an order for his removal."

THE SOUTH CAROLINA ELECTION.—The election for the ratification or rejection of the new State Constitution is now progressing, having commenced on Tuesday. The Democratic Ticket is headed by Hon. William D. Porter, and the Radical ticket by General R. K. Scott, Chief of the Freedman's Bureau in that State. The tickets for State officers are as follows:

	Democrat.	Radical.
Gov.	Wm. D. Porter	Richard K. Scott
Lt. Gov.	T. C. Perrin	Lemuel Boozer
Sec. of State	Samuel Capers	T. L. Cardozo, negro
Adjt. Gen.	J. P. Thomas	F. J. Moses, Jr.
Comptroller	S. L. Leaphart	J. C. Neagle.
Treasurer,	Wm. Hood	N. G. Parker.
Att'y Gen.	I. W. Hayne.	D. H. Chamberlain
Sup't Schools	J. A. Leland	J. E. Jillson.

BUT THREE MORE WORKING DAYS before the election! "The whole secret of success lies in five little letters—F-I-G-H-T!" Not in the sense which Holden meant, when he wanted the Yankees exterminated—not the fight of the bullet, but the fight of the BALLOT. Up, friends, and scatter the mongrels!

THE CLOSE OF THE CANVASS.

The energy, ardor and patriotic determination, which the true white men of North Carolina have exhibited in their opposition to the infamous efforts to degrade them and to humiliate and ruin their good old mother State, have drawn upon them the admiring gaze of the whole country. In every quarter, North and South, we are proud to see the most glowing tributes paid to their manliness, their courageous spirit of resistance to oppression, their high toned independence of character, and to the bright array of great names that are enlisted in the good work of beating back the black wave which threatens to engulph them.

The spectacle which has been presented has indeed been a sublime one. North Carolina has been true to her ancient prestige. While a few degraded whites, scattered here and there like foul and unsightly weeds in this our goodly "garden of the earth," have banded and led the negroes against their own color, for purposes of mean revenge or for the gratification of selfish and mercenary ends, the great mass of our people have been loyal to the instincts of patriotism, which they have inherited from the fathers of '76, and true to their color and their race! No less extraordinary and momentous an issue, than that involving the life of Anglo Saxon liberty, the time-asserted prerogatives of Anglo Saxon manhood, or the purity of Anglo-Saxon blood, could have consolidated into one common, tremendous struggle the efforts of so many men of heretofore radically diverse views and opinions. But they have come together, like patriots, and they have labored and toiled like men, who are determined not to be made vassals and slaves. The intellect, worth and character of the State,—the men of distinguished name and brilliant past, as well as all the worthy classes in humble station,—the true white men, the noble women, and even the little children, who have but faint conceptions how vital an interest they have in the success of their sires in this terrible issue,—are all, ALL enlisted in the great cause on hand.

If they succeed, (as they WILL AND MUST,) old North Carolina will loom up above the horizon as she never did in the palmiest days of the past. If they fail, (which Heaven forefend!) they will go down with the only consolation worth having, in the midst of such ruin, that the degradation is not self imposed, and looking with keener contempt than ever upon the wretched apostates to their State, their kindred and their race, who will be the infamous agents of their humiliation!

THE GOOD NEWS.

We have been several times asked of late, "what is your private opinion about the election?" We state, once for all, that we have no private opinions about the matter. We consider our readers entitled to the honest convictions of our minds, in all matters which concern them, and we give them, from day to day, all the information we have upon the progress of the campaign.—The news we get from East, West, North and South, we lay before them, and it is all encouraging. We shall beat the Constitution, and we shall beat Holden soundly, unless our friends are utterly deceived throughout the State, and unless the worst kinds of fraud are perpetrated against us in the election. Nor do we participate largely in the fear expressed so frequently by our friends, in regard to fraud. The Radicals, i. e. the managers and manipulators, are bad enough to stuff the polls, or do any thing they can to defeat us, that is base and infamous, but we have confidence that they will be detected in such attempts, and that Gen. Canby will do all in his power to expose any fraud which our enemies may perpetrate. When we say this, we do not mean that we suspect Gen. Canby of any leaning to Conservatism,—far from it. But we do mean that we have confidence in him as a gentleman and as a United States soldier of the old stamp. The times have demoralized even old soldiers, some of whom we could name, but we have no evidence that the Military Commander of District No. 2 is among that number, and we therefore confide in his determination to do his duty, according to the best lights he has. He may be, and has been, misled, no doubt, but we trust to his determination to act honorably, according to his best judgment.

Let the Conservatives hold up their heads and work till the last vote is polled, AND VICTORY WILL PERCH UPON OUR BANNERS. The white men of the State are rallying to the rescue. They will not, by their own votes or by their supineness, consent to negro supremacy. We say more,—that we believe many sensible colored men will sustain the cause. They are not so ignorant or so foolish, that they will persist in following the scallawags, when they see the intelligence, the virtue and worth of the white people of North Carolina, all on one side, determined to PUT DOWN RADICALISM!

ANOTHER LIE NAILED TO THE COUNTER!

It will be remembered that the Standard arraigned our worthy Post Commander, Col. Bomford, some days ago, for partiality in his administration. Among other offensive interrogatories put by it was the following: "The Mayor of Fayetteville, a loyal man, has asked for protection,—will he get it?"

The Fayetteville News is authorized by this loyal Mayor to "deny flatly that he ever went to Raleigh for troops, as the Standard would have the people understand. He has declared to several gentlemen, since his return from Raleigh, that he did not have the ordering of troops in his mind and never intended such a thing. So our readers are now acquainted with another misrepresentation of the Standard, which actually seizes upon an occasion to make up a lie about a good Republican, one prominent in the ranks of its own party!"

SHALL NEGRO GUARDIANS BE APPOINTED FOR WHITE WARDS? That is one of the issues. The so-called Convention voted down a prohibition of this possible outrage!

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

WENTWORTH, N. C., April 13, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I wish to proclaim through your column some of the encouraging prospects in old Rockingham. The county is being canvassed by both parties, and our noble Conservative canvassers are so totally demolishing the Radical arguments on every occasion, that, if they can get a dozen to listen to them, they think they are doing remarkably well. It is reported that they are about to give up the canvass.

Both parties met at Bethel's cross roads, last Saturday, with timely notice, and a large crowd had assembled. The Rads had been boasting of their supposed majority at that place. Well, the people were addressed in able and eloquent speeches from Messrs. R. H. Ward, David Settle and A. B. Johns, and there was not a Radical on the ground, except the candidates and Capting Thomas Settle. There was a large crowd of negroes present, and they were all Conservatives, and the Rads could not get more than a dozen to pay any attention to them. Scchagrined were they, that they all came to Wentworth, Saturday night, for a caucus, sorter boozy, drowning their sorrow in whiskey. We have got them; they are beat, sunk thirty five fathoms in general detestation. As a result of the caucus, a messenger has been sent to headquarters, with a communication from Capting Settle, the contents of which are a subject of curiosity. They may rip, rear, snort, defraud and cheat, but Rockingham 18 ALL RIGHT. They may consolidate precincts, but it will lash the people into such a fury, that they will go 100 miles, rather than not vote at all.

The registration in this county has been a large one, but I have not seen any accurate account of it. They themselves say that the whites registered over two to one, which gives still a larger majority; and we will vote down the Radical Constitution and all the contemptible and detestable candidates running on that ticket. P.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

JOHNSTON Co., April 15, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I have taken this opportunity of letting you know how things are going in old Johnston, for the Conservatives. I can say they are doing glorious work. The Radicals say they are working wonders, (that's a fact, shore.) They have got two or three imported men sputtering over the county, looking sdzackly like so many stray geese, and doing jest about as much good. They came to this district, a few days ago, and there was one man, said to be a merchant of Smithfield, who got up and you never heard the like. He cussed and cussed, (member of the church, too,) the secessionists, as he called them. But lor! gentlemen, he forgot that when the war broke out, he cussed we Union men the same way, (for he was a secesh.) He talks mightily to the colored population—that is, they are mighty good now, they can vote. They have a mighty good joke on him, up to Smithfield. The colored men say he use to was a great Pattie Roller. He ketch one nigger way from home, and the fust thing he dun was to say "off wid your dry goods." He rolled up his sleeves and took the nigger across a barrel or log, and then he would spit in his hans and tell de nigger how good he loved him! Its now "Hang Jeff Davis on a sour apple tree." Ure to was "Old Abe is mighty sick," &c.

I tell you what's a fact, Messrs. Editors: We've got de biggist horn in Johnston that ever played six or seven up. One who blows over the county, an calls every man who don't think as he does, sheep-killing secessionists. Well, I don't blame him; he's bin all along dar. Well, I wonder ef de Maj. ever stole any sheep, while he was secessionist and running deserters wid nigger dorgs. But he's 'pented in sack cloth and ashes, like a man in the Bible who sole his birtrite for a box of potash.

Well, Messrs. Editors, there is a nuther man down to Smithfield I seed the other day, an I hear a good deal about. He claims to belong to three parties (cordin to de crowd he gits into.) I had a little chat wid him. He puts me in mind of a man walking barefoot on pine logs three ways to jump; an, to save his sole from de d—l, he don't no whar to jump (echo says cordin to de crowd he gits into.) He is a sort of a lawyer, I believe, and he holds some sort of office. By the way, this same lawyer made secession speeches when our boys were volunteering an leavin. He's a clerk in esticasy in de cort house. He don't like Ashe, nor he don't like the X. p. g. nor goodloe. In fact he's—he's—well I don't no.

The Rads are goin to do all they can; goin to whip some and hang the balance, when they git the power. I think it would be advisable to have a few boys in blue about, they make such threats, from the X. p. g. down, what they are going to do. Just such as the above named men, (once secesh, now Rads) wantid to hang or tar an feather all Union, when de war broke out. Even your humble servant liked to got tar and feathers.

If there is no foul means used you may count ole Johnston all right against the Constitution—ticket an all.

A UNION MAN.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

SAMUEL T. WILLIAMS, ESQ., IN PITTSBORO.

PITTSBORO, April 15, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—We had the pleasure, on yesterday, of hearing a speech from Saml. T. Williams Esq., the Conservative candidate for Congress in this District.

Notwithstanding the cold, rain and mud, a good crowd of intelligent white gentlemen assembled in the Court House to hear him, and also some twenty or thirty freedmen, although strong efforts were made to keep them from hearing the truth, by the leaders of the miserable, traitorous, vagabond and thieving Union League Association.

Holden and Dewese were here, on the 30th. ult., and had a good time of it with gentlemen of their color. So say the negroes, and Wesley Pendergrass swears it's so, because his friend Billy Holden stayed all night at his house. This is a privilege, that but few gentlemen have ever enjoyed.—While Holden was here, he gave orders, (he being the great negro league chief,) that the Leaguers should not be allowed to attend Conservative meetings. Notwithstanding Billy's orders, there are many negroes here, who totally disregard them, and will upon the election day vote for their own interest, and the interest of the true white men, to whom they are indebted for all they have and are, or can ever hope to be.

Mr. Williams made us a fine speech. He took high, bold, manly grounds. He made an able argument against the infamous Constitution, manufactured by Yankee bondholders, and sanctioned by that most disgraceful Convention recently assembled in Raleigh.

The people here have become fully aroused. They are moving together as one man, and will make the strongest effort ever beiore made to defeat the Constitution.

We were all highly gratified with Mr. Williams' speech. He carries with him our best wishes, and leaves behind many, many friends, who will do all of their part in sending him to Washington City, the vulgar John T. Dewease back to his home, and Billy Holden to "Brownlow's feet."

RALLY! CONSERVATIVES!

There will be a meeting of the Conservatives of Raleigh, in the Court House, on Monday night, the 20th.

The Conservative county candidates will address the people and other speeches may be expected.

Let us have a glorious rally! It will be the last meeting of the campaign. Let us hope that our next meeting will be to congratulate one another on the defeat of the NEGRO RADICAL, TAXING CONSTITUTION!

FREE CONSERVATIVE BARBECUE AT SPIKES',

MONDAY, APRIL 20, 1868.

Good cheer! Good speaking! And a good time, generally! The people of the county are invited to attend.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Splendid stock of Drugs, Medicines, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, &c. &c; Jordan & Carr, Sycamore St., Petersburg, Va.

Annual meeting of the Medical Society of North Carolina: Dr. Thomas F. Wood, Secretary.

Annual meeting of the Board of Medical Examiners of North Carolina: Dr. Thos. F. Wood, Secretary.

Foley & Bro. vs. Jos. S. Jones, et als: Court notice by the Clerk of the County Court of Wake.

BRONCHIAL SYRUP.—We are indebted to Dr. Allen Young, of Pittsboro, N. C., for several bottles of this valuable medicine. It has been tested in many cases and has been found to be excellent. It is highly approved by members of the medical profession. Dr. Young is the proprietor, and it is kept on sale, in this city, by Mr. Leach, at the Store of George T. Cooke, Esq.

LADIES! PREPARE YOURSELVES FOR A RICH TREAT,—OPENING DAY, TUESDAY, THE 21ST DAY OF APRIL, AT MRS. ETTINGER'S—Her styles, assortment of bonnets and hats, and, what is better than all, her prices, will compare favorably with any other first class establishment of the kind on the Western continent. td.

THE BURNT DISTRICT.—Our merchants are putting up very substantial stores on the burnt district on Market square. We observe that Mills H. Brown, Esq., is preparing to erect a store on his lot, and we also learn that Wm. H. Holleman will do the same soon.

N. C. BRASS AND IRON WORKS.—Messrs. B. P. Williamson & Co. are putting up, and have on hand, a fine lot of plows at their Foundry, ready for the planters.

For the Sentinel.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Will you be kind enough to call the attention of the City Fathers to the sidewalks between the National Bank and the Post Office on Fayetteville Street? They are a shame and disgrace to any city, and many of our people wish to know how it is, that sidewalks on back streets are in certain cases required to be kept in good order, and this nuisance allowed to continue without remark or rebuke. A CITIZEN.

RATIONS.—There is to be a "grand" Radical barbecue in this City, on Monday. From what we hear of the preparations, we should say that every darkey will get at least a week's rations, besides his dinner. Of course, such a thing as separate tables will not be thought of. Besides, the number of so-called whites present will be too small to justify a special table just for them, and the comparison would look "odorous." Let the brethren eat together out of the same plate—and be happy!

MASS MEETING AT HENDERSON.—We are authorized to say that all persons desiring to attend the Mass Meeting at Henderson, to-day, will only be charged one fare, to and fro, on the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road.

THE INFAMOUS Ashley, of Ohio, did not speak in Raleigh last night. We understand that the Conover-perjury man holds forth to-night. We hope that no white man or respectable colored man will hear him.

SECRET SOCIETIES.—Much ado is made about the K. K. K's. We have no evidence that such a secret organizations is in existence. Nor do we believe that it does exist. It is a mere myth, to frighten timid people. The only dangerous secret organizations in the country that now exist are the Union Leagues, Grand Army of the Republic, and such like. All such, we believe, are dangerous to liberty and the perpetuity of the Republic, and should be disbanded.

COL. R. D. HALL, our gallant candidate for Lieutenant Governor, addresses the people at Weldon, to-day.

REGISTRATION—THE ELECTION.

Any registered voter, no matter where he may have registered, if he has removed into another county, can vote in that county, upon presentation of certificate or upon affidavit of registration, provided he has resided in said county for ten days prior to the election.

Gen. Canby has ordered, we are glad to see, that the ballot boxes shall not be opened nor the tickets removed, for any purpose whatsoever, until the final closing of the polls. Let the poll-holders now, if they wish to avoid all suspicion of unfairness, invite one responsible and intelligent man of each party, to be present at the final counting out. Public sentiment demands this.

Gen. Canby also prescribes that Inspectors of election have no right to examine contents of ballots, before depositing them in the boxes.

NEGRO CANDIDATES.

We requested our friends, a few days ago, to send us, from all parts of the State, the names of the negro candidates in the State for the several offices, their pedigrees and general character. These statements begin to come in. A friend in Fayetteville sends us the following:

"NEGRO CANDIDATES IN CUMBERLAND: For House of Representatives, Isham Swett—free mulatto of old issue; Barber by trade—went with 1st. Regt. N. C. Vols. (Contederate,) in the capacity of a servant.

John Leary—free mulatto, old issue; Saddler by trade. His father, also free mulatto, formerly owned slaves and sold them. One of his brothers was in the raid with John Brown, and was killed at Harper's Ferry."

If our friends will comply with our request as above, we shall have an interesting chapter of the practical working and character of Radicalism.

LINCOLN.

Extract from a letter, dated

LINCOLN, April 13.

"Our ticket is: For the Senate, (in Lincoln, Gaston and Catawba,) Col. Lawson Mason, of Gaston; for the House, Elisha Saunders, Esq.

O'Hara, (negro,) has been with Daddy Kalvin on a tour in this and adjoining counties. The white men can't stand being instructed by a negro as to what kind of a government they ought to have. We are certain of a majority against the "Konstitushun," and to elect the Conservative candidates in the county. In fact, the scallawags have no candidates in the field, except for Senate and Clerk.

Col. Jno. F. Hoke is on the stump and doing good service."

CABARRUS.

Extract from a letter, dated

PIONEER MILLS, April 15.

"Cabarrus is all right. The Conservatives will carry the county by five hundred majority. We have an excellent ticket. I do not know of a single person, in this section of the county, that will vote the Radical ticket.

We will defeat Holden in the State by at least 20,000 majority."

UNFORTUNATE.—We deeply regret to learn that while Hon. Thos. S. Ashe, our candidate for Governor, was at the Salisbury Depot, on Wednesday night, to get a ticket on the Charlotte Road, his pocket book, containing $600 or $700, was stolen from him. He did not discover the loss until he had gotten on the train and had gone half a mile, when the conductor put him off to return to Salisbury. Every effort was being made to detect the thief and our friends had hopes of succeeding. Several suspicious persons had been noticed for a day or two about the Depot. These facts we learn from a gentleman, who left Salisbury during Wednesday night.

THE GREAT "OBSTRUCTION."

The Register, of this City, says:

"As Mr. Holden is clearly ineligible, we presume that he will withdraw from the contest, as it will be seen from the article from the New York Tribune, in another column, that he is considered at Washington the only obstruction to reconstruction, and his remaining a candidate will imperil the success of the proposed Constitution."

Holden will hardly withdraw, at this late stage of the canvass; or, if he does, it will only be at the last moment, for the sake of enabling him to say, when defeated, that he had withdrawn.

IGNORANT and gullible as the negroes are, they are obliged to appreciate, at its proper value, in their calm moments, Holden's love for them. He said that he advocated peace, during the last year of the war, because it was the only means by which slavery could be saved. He was so anxious to retain this feature of Southern institutions, that he was willing to surrender political independence and every thing else, rather than to jeopardize the right of property in SLAVES!!

THE CONSERVATIVES of Lincoln met addressed, on Monday, by Gen. J. M. Leach, Dr. I. W. Jones and F. E. Shober, Esq. The people were out in large numbers and there was great enthusiasm.

WE HEAR of certain Radical candidates in some of the counties complaining that they are not treated with courtesy in their peregrinations through the country,—that they are often refused accommodations at private houses, &c. Well—vot of it?—Every man has a right to select his own company. These Radicals have chosen theirs,—let them enjoy it.

ROW AT CLINTON.—The Fayetteville News regrets to learn that, through the insolence and continued disorderly conduct of the negroes in the crowd at Clinton, at a discussion there, a few days ago, a fight took place, in which several colored people were somewhat injured. The conduct of the negroes on the occasion was the legitimate result of Radical teaching.

THE SKIES ARE FULL OF PROMISE! A few days more of WORK, and all WILL BE WELL.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

SALISBURY, N. C., April 11th, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Thinking a brief account of a trip to the mountain section of the State would not prove uninteresting, I will furnish a few notes by the way, which you can publish, if you think proper. Last Monday morning, we took the cars on the Western N. C. Railroad, and under the care of Capt. Blackmer, (who, by the by, we found a very clever gentleman and quite attentive to the wants of passengers,) were soon whirling away towards the mountains. The country along the line of the Railroad presents a very attractive appearance, and some of the land, especially in the Valley of the Catawba river, gives evidence of great fertility. The wheat crops are looking finely and the farmers seem to be very much encouraged at the prospect of an abundant crop of this important product. We pass, en route, the thriving towns of Statesville and Newton, and at 11 o'clock leave the cars at Icard Station, and take a hack for Lenoir, the county seat of Caldwell county, which was the point of our destination.

We found the Superior Court in session, (Judge Little presiding,) which, of course, brought together a large number of citizens from all parts of the county. On Monday, Hon. Thos. S. Ashe addressed the people, on Tuesday Ted R. Caldwell and Gen. Abbott, and on Wednesday Col. B. S. Gaither.

Very little business was done in Court, besides disposing of a number of cases on the State docket. The one that excited most interest was that of the State vs. Marion Bean and Wiley Bean, who were charged with the murder of an old man named Jesse Freeman. The unusual interest, in this case arose from the fact that the accused were both Deaf-Mutes, and had never enjoyed any of the advantages of an education, although our good old State has supported, for more than twenty years, an institution for the especial benefit of this unfortunate class of her citizens.

Col. W. P. Bynum, Solicitor, and Mr. Malone, appeared for the State, and G. N. Folk for the defendant.

The prisoners were brought to the bar of the court and arraigned, when the Solicitor suggested that they stood mute by the visitation of God; whereupon a jury was empannelled and the following issues were submitted: 1st. Whether the prisoners are able to plead to the indictment against them. 2nd. Whether the prisoners are now sane or not. After the examination of several witnesses, eliciting the fact that they were uneducated—had no idea of a Supreme Being—and that there were no means of communicating to them the nature of the charges against them, and their rights under the trial, the Solicitor stated that he was satisfied from the precedents in such cases the prisoners could not properly be brought to trial and was willing that the jury should enter a verdict in their favor. He also stated that after the examination of a number of witnesses he was satisfied that there was no evidence sufficient to connect them with the homicide.

Col. Folk also made a few remarks, and said he felt it due to his unfortunate clients to state, that if they had been placed on trial he could have proved an alibi at the time the murder was committed. He did not think that there was one tithe of evidence to convict them of complicity in the homicide. That he considered the order of the Court very proper, that the finding of the jury should be certified to the County Court, in order that steps might be taken for their education and improvement. He felt that so long as society permitted this class of individuals to grow up in ignorance—especially when ample provision had been made for their improvement—they certainly could not be held accountable for the violation of laws of which they had no knowledge.

Lenoir is beautifully situated, about eight miles from the foot of the Blue Ridge. Other small mountains are much nearer the village. About two miles distant, rises a tall knob, called in late years "Hibri 'ten," but more familiarly known as the "Turkey Cock." The view from the top of the mountain is very fine, indeed; in fact, one of the prettiest we have ever seen. Far in the distance can be seen the distinct outline of the peaks of "Table Rock," and "Hawk's Bill," and "Grandfather." Below, the cultivated fields, with their rolling surface, and the forests form a beautiful landscape, while, on all sides, as far as the eye can see, are ranges of mountains.

The top of the mountain is reached by a well graded turnpike, built about ten years ago, by Mr. Lenoir, a gentleman of wealth, who spent much of his time and money in improving the roads near the village. Hibri 'ten seems to have been an especial favorite with him, as he had cut down the trees where they obstructed his view, and constructed roads around it in every direction. The following is painted on a board and placed in a conspicuous position near the top of the mountain:

"CEDARS OF HIBRI'TEN.

Stranger, spare each tree,
Break not a single bough;
Their shade and beauty free,
Claim thy protection now.

A Heavenly Father's hand
Has made this lovely spot,
And beautified the land;
Thy hand should harm it not."

We were very much pleased with the citizens of Lenoir, and a stranger who has partaken of their kind hospitality will not soon forget them.

Davenport Female College is situated at Lenoir. The buildings are well arranged, and furnished with an ample supply of necessary school fixtures and apparatus, and stand on a beautiful eminence overlooking the village and surrounding country. Rev. Samuel Lander, formerly of Lincolnton, whom we do not hesitate to pronounce one of the best teachers in the South, is now President of this Institution. He is assisted by an able corps of teachers, and we hope that he will receive the encouragement he so richly deserves, in his efforts to build up an institution of learning of the first class.

We remained at Lenoir until Friday, and shall long remember our visit. From this, our first visit to the mountain region of our good old State, we are convinced that those who wish to enjoy mountain scenery, and find a pleasant summer retreat, need not go beyond her limits.

I commenced to give you a few notes by the way, and I have spun out a long letter.

J.

MISSTATEMENT CORRECTED.—A statement appeared in the Washington correspondence of a Baltimore paper, to the effect that Senator Van Winkle, of West Virginia, had declared his intention of voting for the conviction of the President in the impeachment trial, and that Judge Curtis, of counsel for the defence, had said that he believed the Senate would convict Mr. Johnson. Your correspondent is authorized by the Senators and counsel above named, to say that there is not one word of truth in the assertions above quoted.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald.

The SUCCESS of the white men of North Carolina, on the 21st. of April, is a CERTAINTY, if they will all VOTE, as we believe they will.

SHALL WHITE MEN BE ENROLLED in the MILITIA with NEGROES,—perhaps under negro officers? That is one of the issues.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

LOUISBURG, APRIL 13th, 1868.

Messrs. Editors.—Having been among the entertained, on occasion of the Musical Soiree or Entertainment, given last week in Louisburg, for the benefit of the Methodist Church in that town, I take this opportunity, through the medium of your well known and widely disseminated paper, of giving my opinion in regard to the performances.

To begin then: On the evening appointed, following the direction taken by the crowd, who with unanimity of purpose led the way to a new building a little to the North-East of the Court House, I found myself, after ascending a broad and easy flight of stairs, in a large commodious hall.

My eyes, of course, naturally sought the stage, the cynosure of all eyes, and a pleasant impression did I receive from my observations; for taste and skill had directed and arranged the whole most agreeably. To add to the satisfaction of all, both to performers and audience, that estimable gentleman, Rev. T. M. Jones, the worthy President of Louisburg Female College, as his Faculty were to add by their musical performances to the enjoyment of the evening, had kindly loaned one of his new, superb pianos, (of the Knabe & G. make,) the sweetness of whose tones was to make the hearts of those capable of appreciating good music thrill with sensations of pleasure. Ah, my dear Mr. Sentinel, you ought to have been there, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, (one evening could not suffice us.) I assure you that if the pleasure I experienced in seeing and hearing all could have turned my gray hairs black, you would have seen a shining head of jet instead of—well, no matter!

To return to sos mouttons: There was certainly no lack of variety, while the acting, whether in tableaux, charade, drama or pantomime, was so natural and life like, that one was quite carried away by it, while admiring the propriety and elegance also of the varied costumes requisite. The actors all deserved the encomium well done! from one end of the stage to the other.

The instrumental and vocal music was likewise, too, of a superior order, well selected and equally well rendered. Whether the talented and accomplished Professor Hahr, whose skilful handling of the violin is too well known to require farther eulogium, struck the chords of the instrument, the songsters warbled their melodies, comics made the house resound with laughter, or the "dulcet guitar" responded to the call for music in the drama of Aladdin, all was listened to with pleasure.

I, for one, shall not soon forget the treat, and, with three cheers for the entertaining dramatis personæ, and my very best bow to the College, (a second Greensboro Alma Mater,) I bring this to a close, subscribing myself. FINIS.

THE CONTEST IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The Conservatives of North Carolina are warming up to the great contest before them in gallant style. Public meetings are daily held in the counties, towns and cities, wherever a speaker can be had, or an audience obtained. Right manfully are her gallant sons standing forth in behalf of the Constitutional rights of white men and raining upon the mad schemes of the Radicals arguments so eloquent and truthful as to warm the hearts and inspire to active diligence the efforts of her noble sons.

The press of that State never did better service than in the present canvass, and such has been the result of united action between orators and editors, as to drive from the field the traitor Holden, whose record has been turned with telling effect upon his new-found zeal for the "glorious Union."

The example of the Old North State is worthy of emulation by every Virginian.—The press are well in the harness and a unit in sentiment throughout the State. It is now time that our speakers should be stirring up the people of Virginia from the mountains to the sea. Time is precious; for the Vandal hordes are sapping the foundations of civil government and trying to tear up society by its roots.

Let us be up and doing with a will unabashed and an energy that acknowledges no possibility of defeat.—Norfolk Journal.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING.—Yesterday the Court adjourned to give the candidates an opportunity to address the people. By invitation, Hon. J. H. Wilson (who is not a candidate) opened the discussion. His speech was able and convincing. During the delivery, Capt. W. R. Myers, late of the P. A. C. S. A., interrupted him by asking if the Constitution did not fix a limit to taxation on property. As it was respectfully asked, Mr. W. answered with an overwhelming argument—so much so that every white Radical present was satisfied that the Conservatives are right. There is no limit in the new Constitution to tax on property—and as they are levied by an irresponsible body, and disbursed by men who do not have to give bond for faithful accounting for the same, the entire property of the State is at stake. Mr. Wilson's speech was powerful, and did good.

Judge Osborne next appeared, and made the best and happiest speech we ever heard from him. We can say no more. It would be idle to attempt a summary of his speech.

R. D. Whitley was next called out, and acquitted himself with great credit. Then came Col. Osborne, who spoke with marked effect.

The Court House was crowded during the whole meeting and we can safely say the people of this county are fully aroused, and the whites will vote almost as a unit.—Char. Times.

MARRIED,

In Randolph County, N. C., at the residence of the bride's father, on the 15th of February, 1868, by D. W. Porter, Esq., Dr. W. McK. Dobkan, to Miss MARGARET, daughter of DR. A. C. Balls.

WASHINGTON, April 16, M.

There was a heavy thunder storm here last night. It is now raining heavily.

Additional intelligence from the Fort Jervis accident says that J. R. Hanna, of the Louisville Commercial News Reporter, was badly hurt—The lists show that no other South-erner was hurt.

The Speaker announced that after the return of the House from the impeachment trial, business would be resumed.

Mr. Evarts reported to the Court that Mr. Stanbery was better, but inclemency weather prevented his attendance.

The investigation of Gen. Thomas' arrest was resumed.

Great Mass Meeting of Conservatives in Newbern!!!

Three Times Three for Old Craven!!!

NEWBERN, April 16 P. M.

Although the weather was inauspicious, the Mass Meeting to-day was a magnificent success. Jno. H. Haughton, Esq., presided, and addresses were made by Col. Kenan, Maj. John Hughes, Col. W. J. Clarke, Alex. Justice and H. R. Bryan, Esqs.

The town was crowded with people and the theatre filled to overflowing. Large numbers of ladies were in attendance. The galleries were filled with an attentive audience of negroes.

The speeches were powerful and convincing, and the enthusiasm very great.

Much good was accomplished, and it is said that numbers of negroes here are leaving the slavery of the Leagues.

Craven will do her duty, and appeals to the West to save her from the evils with which the East is threatened.

FROM WASHINGTON—IMPEACHMENT—BUTLER MAKES ANOTHER HARANGUE.

WASHINGTON, April 16, P. M.

James Hinds, claiming to represent the Little Rock, Arkansas, District in Congress, filed his credentials, to-day.

It is understood that the Committee of Commerce will report favorably on the bill for improvement of the Western rivers and harbors.

Gen. Sherman returns here until Saturday.

Revenue to-day $230,000.

IMPEACHMENT.

Summer moved that all the evidence, not trivial, be admitted. Tabled, 33 to 11.

This was preambled by the declaration that the Senate is the Judge of law and facts, and its supporters include names that have voted with the majority.

Walter S. Cox, the President's counsel in the Thomas case, was called, and Judge Curtis asked when, by whom, and under what circumstances, he was employed.

Butler objected.

Chase ruled the answer admissible.

Cox went to the President's at 5 o'clock on February 22nd. The President and Thomas were present. The President said—

Butler here interrupted, and Senator Edmunds asked the Counsel what they desired to prove.

Evarts replied that the President employed Cox to take such steps in Thomas' case as would bring Stanton before the Judicial tribunals.

Butler objected.

A long controversy ensued. Chase decided the evidence admissible under the Senate's previous ruling.

Drake appealed.

Chase was sustained, 29 to 21.

The President directed the witness to institute proceedings to have the constitutionality of the tenure-of-office act tested. He directed the witness to consult the Attorney General, who was too busy to give the matter personal attention. Under these instructions, he applied for a habeas corpus, which was defeated by Thomas' discharge. Thomas then instituted preliminary proceedings in quo warranto.

B. T. Merrick, Thomas' Counsel, received the same instructions from the President, and Judge Stanbery gave detailed accounts of the proceedings in Thomas' case—showing how hams-ff and Cox were defeated in bringing the question before the Supreme Court.

Butler interrupted Merrick to say that he wished to clear his skirts—that all this matter was going on against the objection of the Managers, under the ruling of the Chief Justice.

Judge Chase rose and said: It goes on, by decision of the Senate of the United States.

E. O. Perrin called on the President, with Representative Selyee, on the afternoon of February 21st. He commenced a narrative—

Butler objected.

Evarts stated that he desired to prove, by this witness, that the President stated he had removed Stanton, and appointed Thomas, temporarily, as he intended sending a good name to the Senate at once.

Ruled out of order by a large majority, among whom was Reverdy Johnson.

The Counsel here announced the work prepared for to-day finished.

INFAMOUS SPEECH FROM BUTLER.

Butler made a harangue against the delay, saying that, during the delay, Union men were murdered daily throughout the South; and Treasury officials are selling gold below, and buying bonds above, the markets—thereby putting money into their pockets. He characterized this as the last act of the War in which thousands were killed, and remonstrated against the delay in this last act, on account of the sickness of an Attorney. He exhibited a note that he had received, K. K. K.'s telling him the avenger was abroad, and denouncing scarcel, quoting a scotch proverb that "a threatening dog was safe."

A motion to commence the Court at 11 o'clock, hereafter, was postponed. Adjourned.

VIRGINIA CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, April 16 P. M.

The Convention has fixed the 2nd of June for submission of the Constitution to the people and state officers and members of the Legislature and Congress are to be elected at the same time.

The Legislature is to assemble June 24th, if the Constitution is adopted. Most of the day was spent in skirmishing to modify the iron clad oath of office, at least for county officers.

All efforts were defeated by a decided majority.

An article to relieve from disability persons who had supported the Reconstruction Acts and who shall vote for this Constitution, was also defeated.

ORDER FROM GENERAL CANBY.

HEDQ'RS 2ND. MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., April 6, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS
No. 61.

The Commanding General has received information from different sections of the States of North Carolina and South Carolina, and from members of both political parties, that combinations have been formed, or are now being formed, to prevent, delay or hinder the execution of the laws of the United States, or by force, intimidation or threat to prevent persons from accepting or executing the duties of any office or employment under the United States, at the elections to be held under the authority of the law of March 2 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," and the laws that are supplementary thereto. While he is satisfied that these complaints apply to a few persons only of both parties, it is proper that all such persons should be warned that any attempt by force to prevent, hinder or delay the execution of the laws of the United States, under the authority of which the said election is ordered, or by force, intimidation or threat to prevent any person from accepting or holding any office, or trust, or place of confidence under the United States, as Registrar, Superintendent, Judge, Manager, Inspector or Clerk, or other employment at said election, will be amenable, not only to the penalties prescribed under the authority of the said laws, but for violation of the Act of Congress "to define and punish certain conspiracies," approved July 31, 1861. (Statutes at Large, Volume 12, Chapter XXXIII.)

It is the duty of the civil and military authorities in both States to secure to every registered voter the full and free exercise of his right of suffrage, and this duty must be fully, faithfully and impartially performed, and the Commanding General confidently expects that the people of these States will unite in securing for each other the full and proper exercise of this franchise. But if in any District or County, or polling subdivision of either State, the election should be prevented, or the ballot-boxes or poll-lists should be destroyed, or the electors duly registered under the laws of the United States should be prevented by force or intimidation from voting, a new election will be ordered for such District, county or polling subdivision.

To the end that the laws of the United States may be duly executed; that the officers charged with conducting the elections may be protected in the discharge of their duties, and that the qualified electors may be protected in the exercise of the elective franchise, Commanders of Posts are authorized, whenever in their judgment it may be necessary, to appoint, from the officers of the army or the Freedmen's Bureau, under their command, Military Commissioners for Districts or counties within the territorial limits of their commands that are so remote from their headquarters that the powers conferred upon Post Commanders cannot be immediately or directly exercised.

The Military Commissioners so appointed are invested with all the powers of the Justices of the Peace of Districts or Counties, or the police magistrates of cities, and will be governed in the execution of their duties by the laws of the State in which they may be serving, except so far as these laws may be in conflict with the laws of the United States or with the orders issued from the Headquarters of this District; and, in addition to any troops that may be placed at their disposal, are given the command of the police force of Districts, Counties, cities and towns; and all police officers, sheriffs, constables, and other peace officers, are required to obey and execute the orders of the Military Commissioners in all such cases.

The Military Commissioners will promptly report all cases in which they assume jurisdiction, and the disposition made in each case. When parties are held for trial, either in confinement or under bail, the case will be so fully reported as to enable the Commanding General to decide whether it shall be tried by a military tribunal or be brought before a civil court.

The jurisdiction herein given to the Military Commissioners will be determined and limited by the authority heretofore delegated to Post Commanders by General Orders No. 32, of May 30, 1867, and General Orders No. 145, of December 6, 1867, and will not be considered as extending to the inhabitants in their ordinary personal relations, unless the civil authorities should refuse or fail to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to give all rightful protection to persons and property; and all persons, whether in authority or not, are required to obey and execute all lawful orders of the Military Commissioners to the same extent and in the same manner that they are required by law to obey and execute the writs of the civil magistrates.

Some of the complaints that have reached the Commanding General apply to colored voters of the two States, and to sections where they have the numerical ascendancy. To them it is proper to say that the elective franchise conferred upon them by law, carries with it no authority to restrict others in the free exercise of that right; and that while it is their duty not to regard threats or intimidations as to themselves, any combinations to prevent by force, intimidation or threats the same free exercise of this right by others will be unlawful, and will subject the offenders to the penalties prescribed by law and by military orders.—They are counselled to exercise the right of voting in a quiet and orderly manner, giving offence to no one; and after casting their votes, not to linger about the polling places, but to return quietly to their homes and to their customary avocations.

Commanding Officers will give as wide a circulation as possible to this order within the limits of their commands.

By command of Brevet Major General
ED. R. S. CANBY.

Gen. Canby's Election Order.

HEADQUARTERS SECOND MILITARY DIST.,
Charleston, S. C., March 23, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS,
NO. 45.

The Constitutional Convention of the State of North Carolina, in conformity with the Act of Congress of March 23, 1867, supplementary to the Act of March 2, 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," having framed a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of the aforecited laws; and having by an ordinance adopted on the 17th day of March, 1868, provided that the said Constitution shall be submitted "for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this Act [March 23, 1867, section 4] at an election to be conducted by the officers appointed or to be appointed by the Commanding General as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days after the notice thereof to be given by the said Convention;" and having further provided, by the aforesaid ordinance, that at the same time an election shall be held for Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly, and for all State and County officers who are to be elected by the people under this Constitution, and further, that in each Congressional District of the State an election shall be held for a member of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress, It is ordered:

First. That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 21st day of April, and ending on Thursday the 23d day of April, 1868, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For Constitution" or "Against Constitution," and also on the same ballot for the State and County officers and for members of the United States House of Representatives, as specified in the before cited ordinance.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days, the registration lists; and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such person from the lists, and such persons shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such lists the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts, who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists, the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2, 1867 and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is specially directed to the supplementary Act of July 19, 1867.

Fourth. Any duly registered voter of this State who may have removed from the County in which he was registered, shall be entitled to vote in the County to which he has removed and has resided for the ten days next preceding this election, upon presentation of a certificate of registration from the County in which he was originally registered, or upon his affidavit or other satisfactory evidence that he was so registered, and that he has not voted at this election. It shall be the duty of the Registrars, upon the application of any duly registered voter who has removed or is about to remove from the precinct in which he was originally registered, to furnish him with a certificate that he was so registered, and to note the fact in the registration books of the precinct. In default of the certificate, the affidavit of the voter must set forth the County and precinct in which he was originally registered and the length of time he has resided in the County in which he desires to vote. In doubtful cases, the Registrars or Inspectors of election shall require such additional evidence as may be necessary to satisfy them that the applicant is legally entitled to vote. Blank forms for the certificates and for the affidavits herein required, will be furnished the Registrars and the inspectors of election, and when used will be attached to the ballots cast by such voters, and will be transmitted to District Headquarters with the returns required by law.

Fifth. The said election will be held in each County at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the supervision of the boards of Registration as provided by law, and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at six o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at six o'clock in the afternoon of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Eighth. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election to any office to be filled at this election, shall serve as a Judge or Inspector of Election in any precinct which he seeks to represent.

Ninth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of Election, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the Sheriff of the County is empowered and directed to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers to the other polling places, as may in his judgment best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Tenth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited; and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of Elections, to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority. The exhibition or carrying of deadly weapons in violation of General Orders No. 10, of 1867, at or in the vicinity of any polling places during the election herein ordered, will be regarded and treated as an additional offence.

Eleventh. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from six o'clock of the evening of the 20th of April, until six o'clock of the morning of the 24th of April, 1868, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Twelfth. Military interference with elections, "unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Thirteenth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several Registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.
